Volume XI

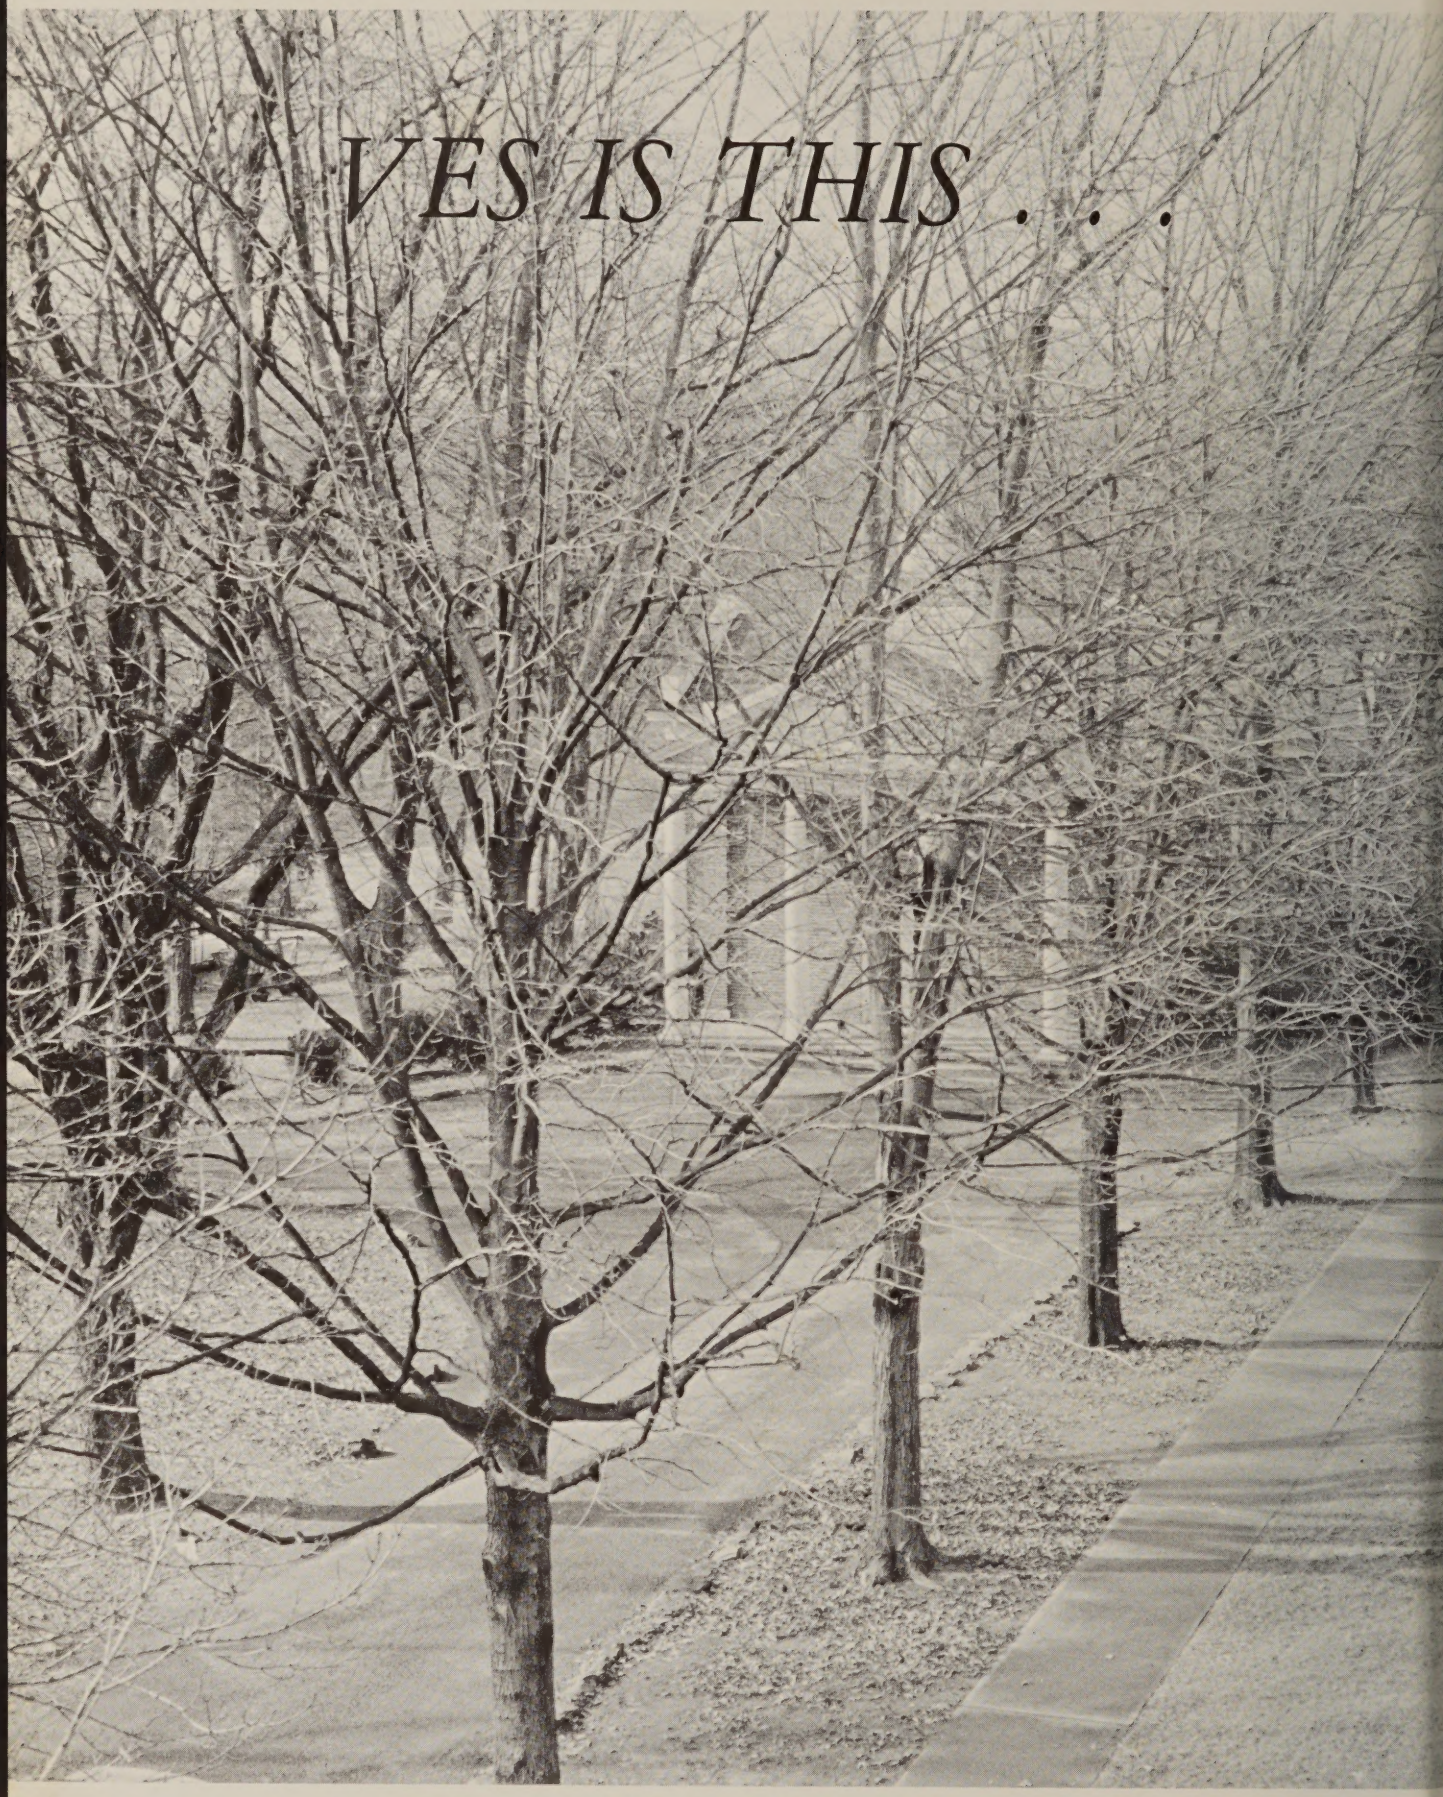
Hunter Publishing Co.

Winston-Salem, N. C.

This Volume is Dedicated to

AUSTIN PHILIPS MONTGOMERY, JR., the Headmaster whose ideals about what a school should be inspired the theme around which this book is turned. "The School exists for boys." He said that often. Without boys, a school is only a scattering of buildings. It is the boy, the individual voice, the collective voice, that gives life and purpose and that creates 'school' in the only real sense.

For seven years, he worked for the boy, for the School. New buildings were erected. The chapel was enlarged, for him "the center of things." More boys came. More voices. He listened to the voices, musingly, carefully, at times painfully. At the culmination of those years, he left a better School. In him was the best that VES became.



YES IS THIS . . .

BUILDINGS WITHOUT BOYS. Fields that go lank. Empty rooms. Grim windows. Hollow hallways. Classroom. Dormitory. Gym. Concrete, brick and mortar — empty all. Sun-sprayed. Sturdy. Deep-limbed. For three dense summer months — solemn and restive. And silent.

THEN A SINGLE VOICE. September, and a single voice: "I knew I should have picked a roommate last year." Another voice, a soprano voice, "Where do they keep the swimming pool?" A deep voice, "Hey! Give me a hand with these trunks." Taxi, station wagon, sedan. "Just let me handle it, Mother. I'll be OK." Bermudas, khakis, open-shirts, duffle bags, catch-alls. Color. Chaos. Banging activity. Windows raised and voices, several at once, so that only the loudest are heard: "We got new beds!" "They both grew beards!" "I've lived for this moment!" Hallways. Doorways. Rooms and walkways. Bull-sessions.

"Where do I put this surfboard?" The volume grows. Noise. Boys. Bull-sessions. "Where do they keep the swimming pool?" The voices . . .

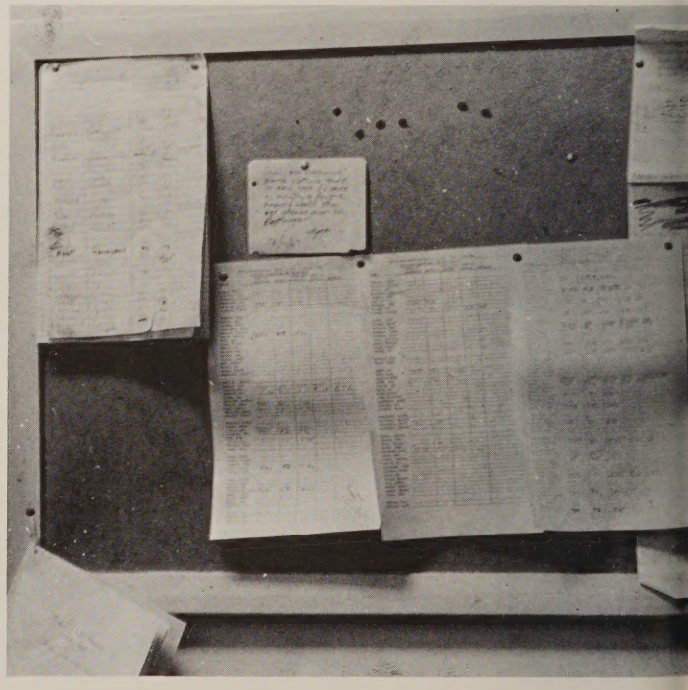
It frightens me to know that fifty-five other boys are trying to get higher grades than me.

It's great that he can speak twelve languages, but I wish he'd teach them one at a time!

My first few days here, it seemed like everybody knew something I didn't.

Opening Day: Dwig

Oliver Crawley arrives.



Everyone present or accounted

Hawkins, Steve Shelton, Lec Leckie, Geoff Norwood, Mrs. Ann Blair Alderson, Mr. Maxwell Meador, Coleman Alderson and Jim Laird.

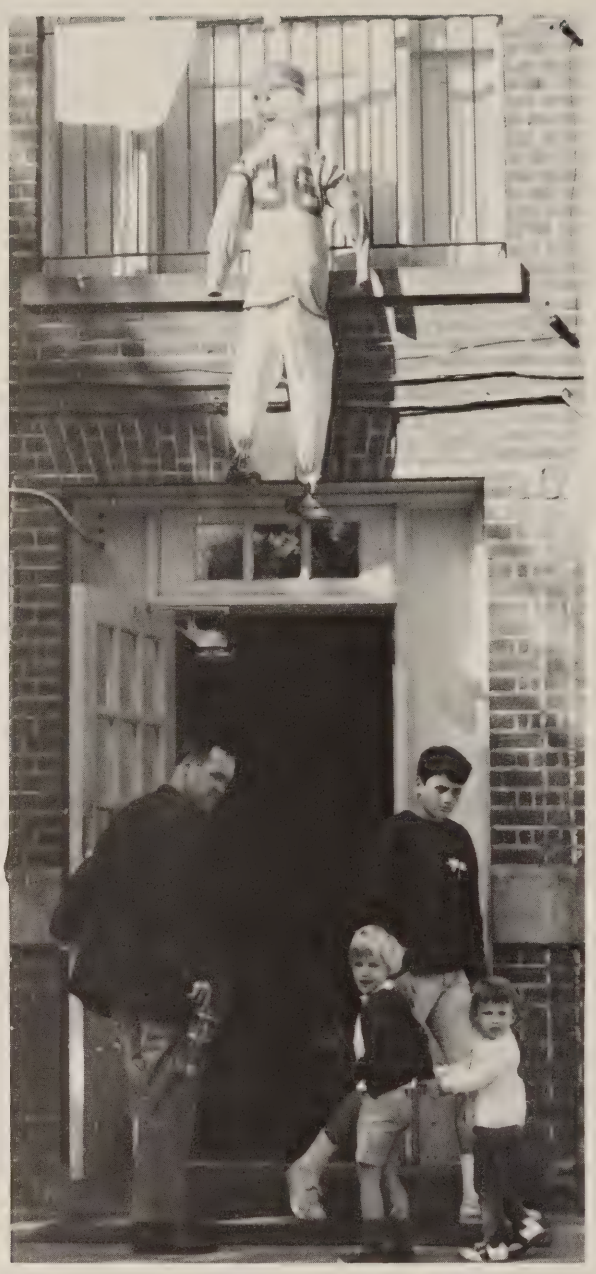
Eddie Barham and his family check-in.

Royall Brown Returns.

Sir, could you help me with this problem?

Yes, of course, It's quite simple. Take the constituent of A, put it over the square root of two, multiply by pi, then add the barometric pressure.

I should have known.



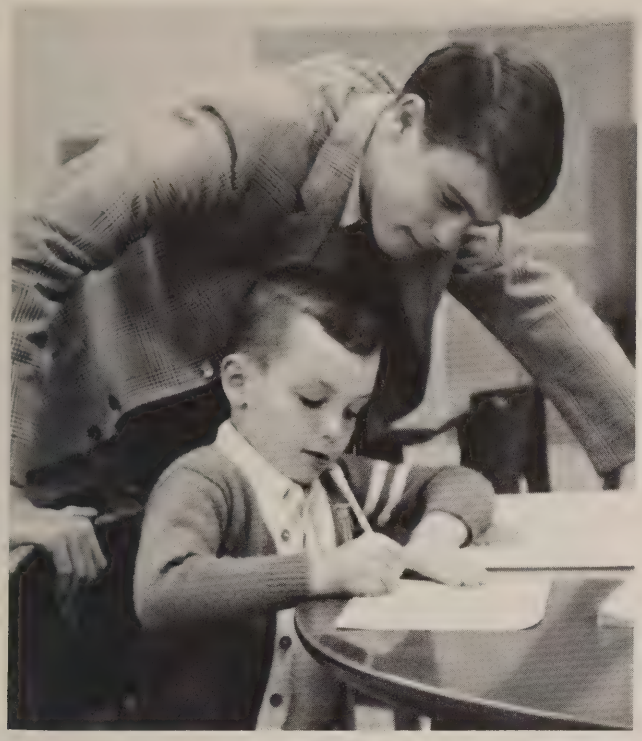
Mr. Moore holds the door for Whit Kehaya, Joanna Hopkins, and his daughter, Marjorie.

I had a good thing going, ordering hamburgers and selling them on dorm. Then one night at 11:30 this jerk rings Mr. Montgomery's door bell and asks, "Where you want them delivered, Mac?"

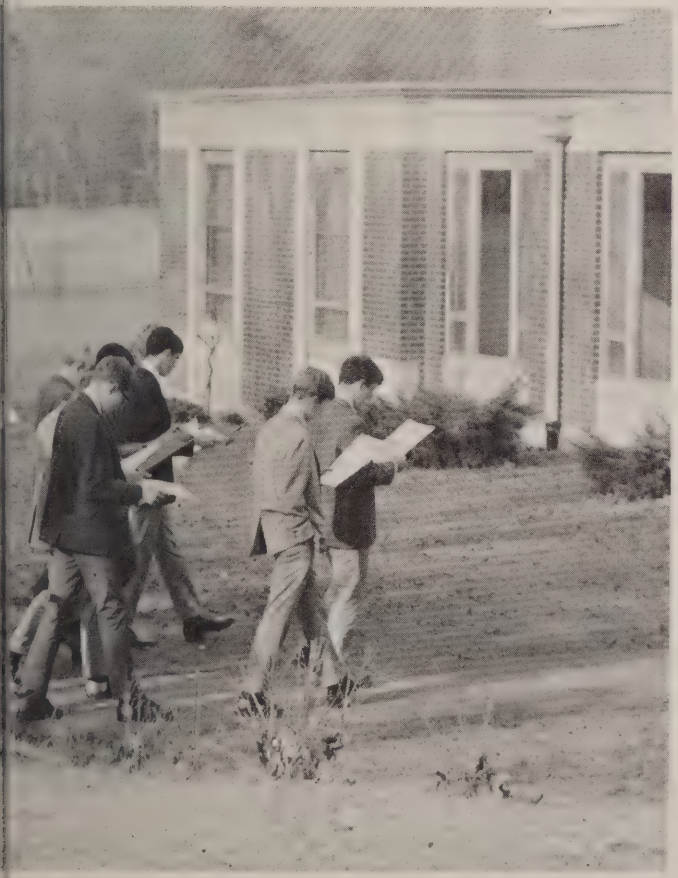
For him it's work, work, work . . . and what does he get? — a Morehead Award. For me it's work, work, work, and all I get is to study in my room instead of in study hall.

First issue of The Meteor is perused by Clay Ferebee, Rhae Adams, Jack Agricola, Royall Brown, Woody Pritchett, Jay Gilliam and Clarke Suttle.

Watch me carry this tray with my eyes closed.



Clarke Daugherty (seated) assists Wooty Peebles with a chemistry problem.



Chapel, the newspaper, then back to class.

Lee Garber, East Coast Angel (reformed).

He's so tough they're afraid to talk about him, even behind his back.

There oughta be a rule: New Sophomores May Not Haze Old Boys!

I've been a teacher here for two years, and the alumni still ask me what grade I'm in.

Captain Crutch, Smugar Shacks or Frosty Flops?

Tom Vernon, Dan Johnson, Perry Erskine cheerleading.

Part of the crowd: Jim Best, Bill Banner, Jim

Dinner at six-eighteen: Mrs. Lillian Harvey, Mrs. Rita Hairston, Mrs. Sylvia Roach.

THE FRESHMAN VOICE. An Important voice. It questions, It rises. At the sound of a counsellor, it stills. "Does he really carry a bull whip?" "What was all the commotion in the hall?" . . . It grows strong: "So I told him, 'Clean off your own greasy table'!" It cries in alarm at a mouse. Brooms are snatched up; the mouse is cornered. The counsellor steps forward and stomps it into the floor.

The year goes on. The voices modulate. A new life. They learn quickly. Some gain academic distinction. They beat the JV basketball team. "Good athletic material there." They do not remain novices long.

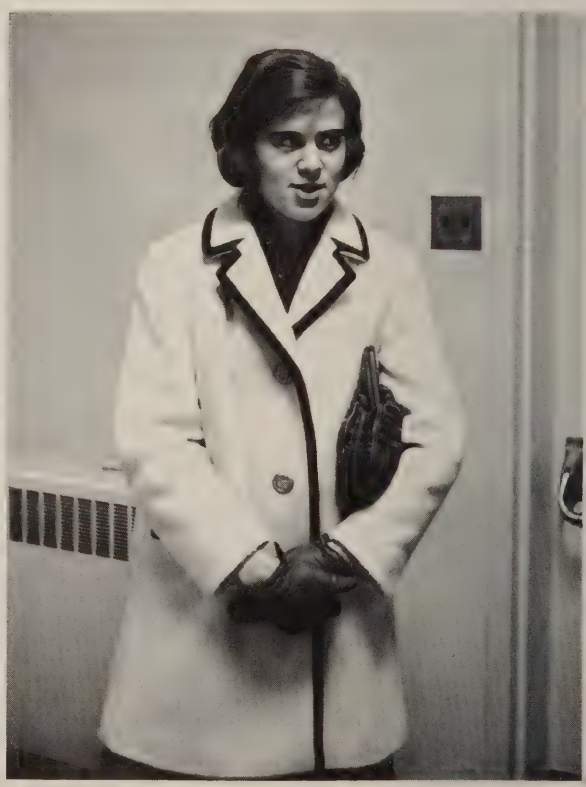
Mr. Samuel Miller, Spanish and German.



Mrs. James Holmes, French II, III, IV.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

REPETITION. MEMORIZATION. TRANSLATION. Conjugations and pronunciations. Listening to tapes. All about El Cid.

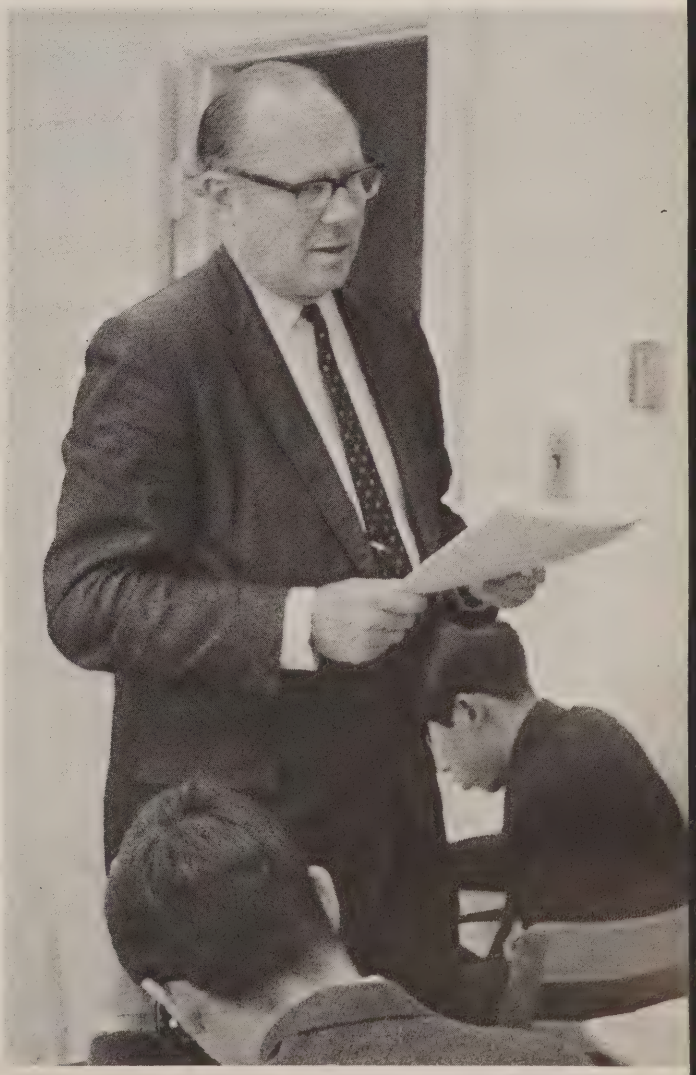
"Seventy percent of every language is werbs . . ." "Fermez la bouche!" "Dear Pen Pal, Parlez-vous francais?" "In studying a foreign language, always use correct grammar. If you don't, it sounds horribly."

Vocabulary. Form and syntax. Caesar this . . . Caesar that. Peri vestram, catapults and Forums. ALM books and thirteen others — never read. The history of Spain. A little on Cuba. A broken tape recorder. Fill-in teachers. Promises about "future knowledge." Lost werb Wheels. Open-book tests. Noisy exams. "A few last-minute tips . . ."

Finally, it all makes sense. You open a book one day, thinking you'll not understand a single word, and find you can read non-stop.

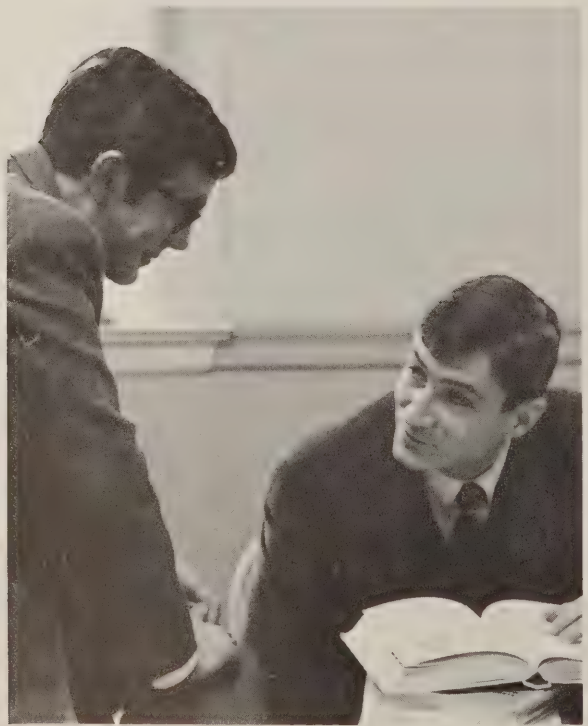
Mr. Maxwell Meador, Latin.

Mrs. Nathaniel Jobe, French I.



French I: Mr. David Austen.

Through the keyhole and into American History: Mr. Nathaniel Jobe.



Mr. Ricardo Palomares, Modern World History, helps Randy Longworth.

Mr. Rodney Goggin, American History.

HISTORY

A FEW BULL-SESSIONS in class. A few days of lectures. Debates with the rival class. "Why did the Roman Empire decline?" "Because it was easier to decline the empire than to decline the verbs." Studies of problems facing a country. "What is the history of Viet Nam?" The Middle Ages. The Renaissance. The Reformation.

Student Weekly. Current events. Advise and Consent. Political analysis: "His handwriting leans to the left." "What do you thing about Cooba?" "Cuba is the biggest country in the world: its capital is Havanna, its government is in Russia, and its people are in the United States."

Final exams. Always moving, one era to the next. Never a chance to stop. "We'll never get it all done!" The Civil War: papier-mache battlefields in boxes with toy soldiers. The Peculiar Institution. Color Gettysburg green.

Mr. Norman Blake in Western Civilization with Jim Wilcox and Coleman Alderson.

Lynch Christian, Peter Grover, Lec Leckie and David Watkins look on as American History sections debate.

Mr. Silas Daugherty describes a chemistry experiment.

Advanced Biology jam session: Mr. Lowry Stephens

SCIENCE

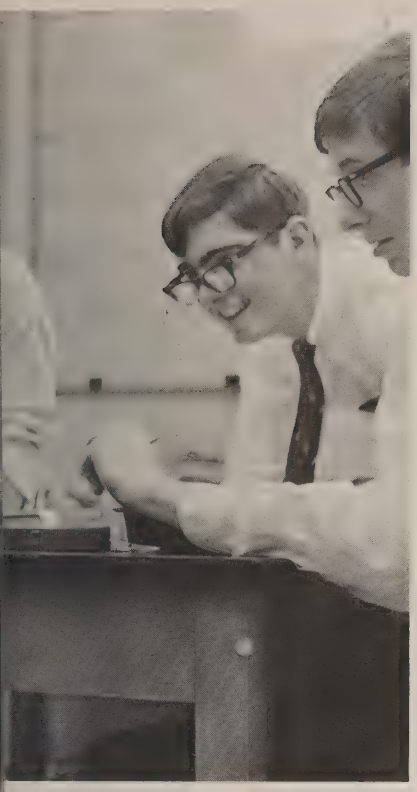
CONCEPTS. IDEAS. RELATIONSHIPS. Looking into the future: "If Buck Roger's freeze gun works on gas, at what temperature and pressure—" Dissecting a rat . . . "Labs give a chance to gain practical knowledge, a break from pure fact and theory." . . . "Sir, I think she's pregnant."

Electron dot-configuration projected. Drawings of plants. Bull-sessions on anything. Talks about the evils of smoking. Turtle eggs that break when you play with them. Sodium that causes explosions. Broken test tubes. Sulphur fumes all over school. "Sir, I don't understand this problem." "That figures."

Learning why plants need nitrogen. LSD. Evolution. Asking questions that have no answers. "It figures."

Problems . . . Sailboats . . . Wind velocity. Solutions. Mixtures. Stuff. The latest Tom Swift book. Where does it come from? Where does it go? Nobody knows, but still they reach . . .

Biology: Mr. Lowry Stephenson is amused by an amoeba.



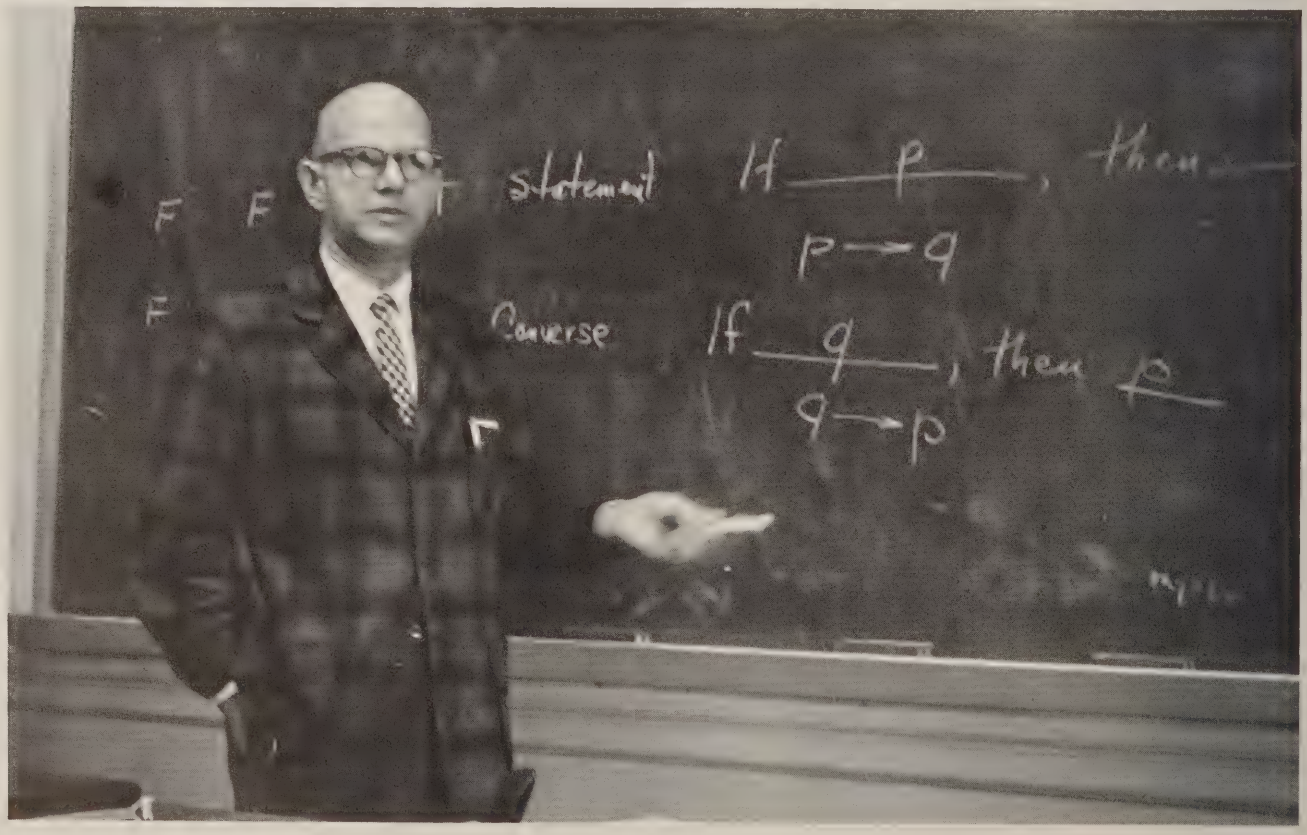
e Liles, Joe Mathias, James Hamilton and Lanny Buchanan.

Mr. T. S. Applegate and Walker Box work out the density of water in chemistry lab.

Chemistry lab: David Watkins looks on as Jim Cherry tests his skill on the scales. Background: Mosby Vogler and Clay Ferebee.

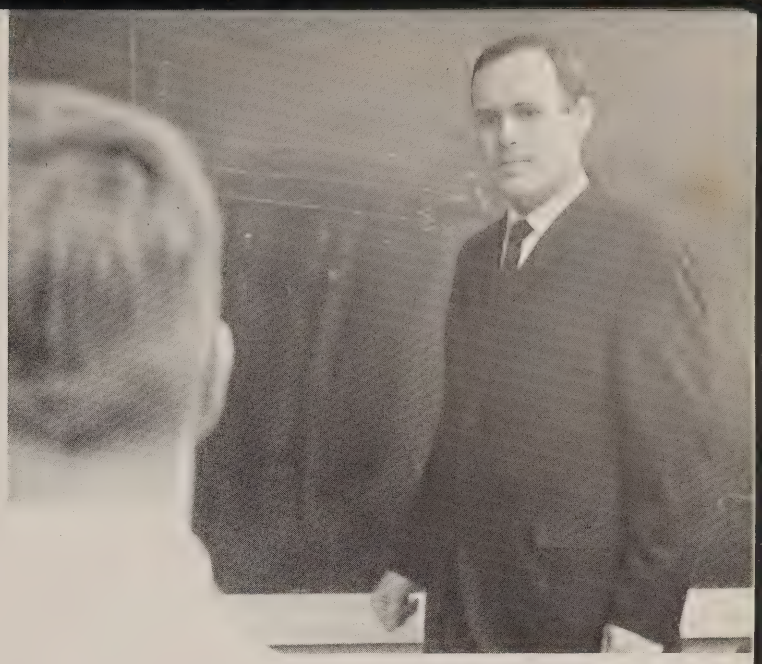
Mr. Bobby Lynch: Algebra II.

Calculus class: Al Williams, Lanny Bucha



Mr. Paul Hebberger: Geometry.

n, Joe Liles, Gordon Whitehead and Barry Jones.



Mr. Thomas Moore: Algebra I.

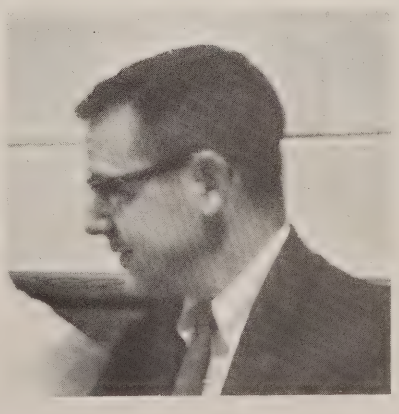
MATHEMATICS

DID ANYBODY GET X^2-6X+4 for that last problem?" "The book did." "If two boys eat 7½ pies, how many pies would six boys eat if one of them wasn't hungry." "Sir, may we go to the rec room now?"

Putting the mind in order in order to handle sets . . . relations . . . functions. The beginning of understanding. Making use of manipulative skills. A short, standard test for the entire school. "Crip . . . finished it in ten minutes." Then the results come back.

"Which problem caused you most trouble?" "All of them!" Teachers try harder. Old-fashioned methods are out. New ways to do new math. More to learn. Advanced Placement. A graduate can go into college calculus. "Well, let's look at one or two on the board. If you can do one, you can do them all."

Points. Times. Slope. Intercept. "Aw'right, makes no difference." Finally all lines merge into an over-all understanding. Frustration . . . Reward.



Mr. Robert Lee times three.

RELIGION

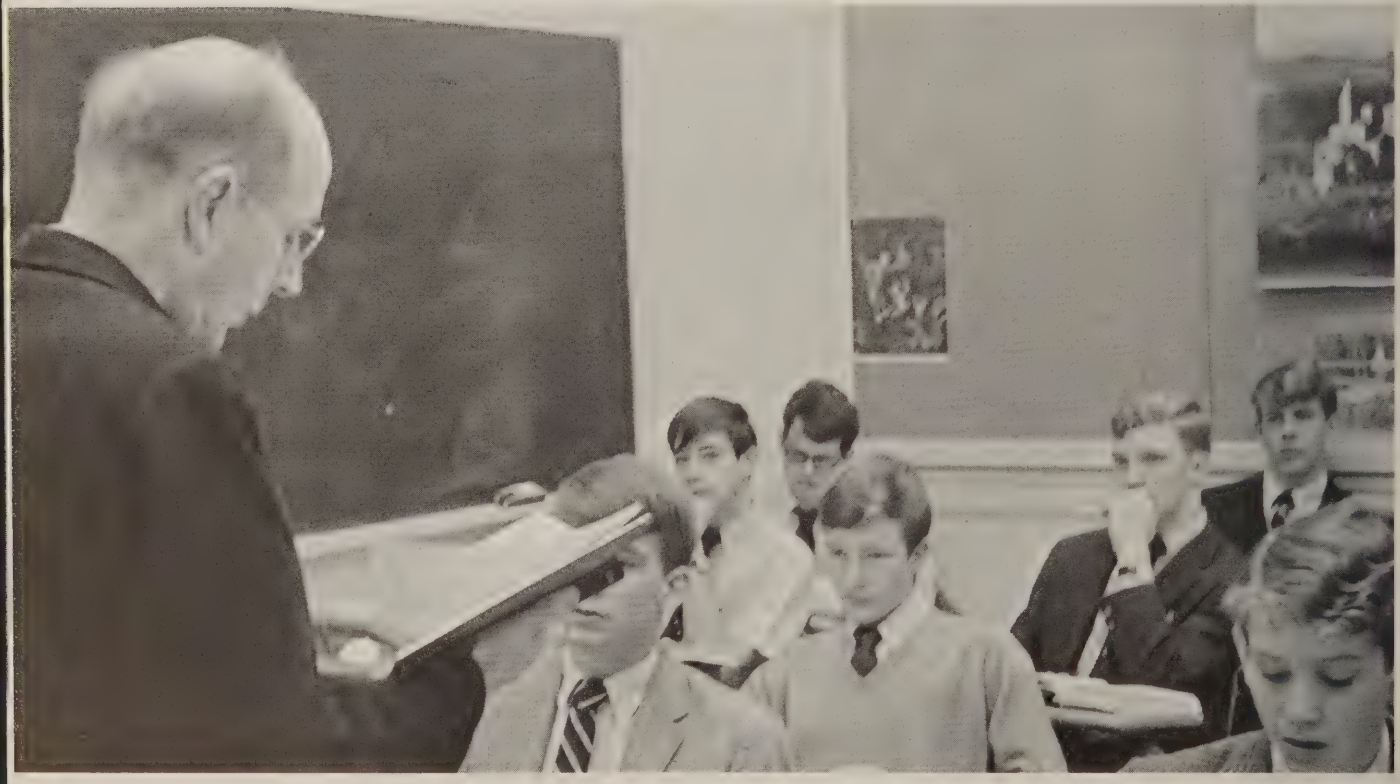
The Rev. John Spong.

EVERY SINGLE BOOK in the Old Testament—Ezra, Nehemiah, Jeremiah. Brush fire. Holy fire. Manna. "Do you believe in magic?" "The Lord Loveth Carolina." Boston Red Sox: 5; Minnesota Twins: 3 . . . "The Lord Hateth Boastful Winners."

A madras vest and a cowboy hat . . . "Why would the harbinger of Life wear the color of Death?" "What prophet shall I write on?" "What was Abishag's relationship to David?" "Now David was a poor administrator . . ." "Why don't you write on II Issiah—he was cool." Answer: She was his hot-water bottle.

Mid year. Wisdom literature—Job, Psalms, Proverbs. The New Testament. Minstrels. Troubadors. Hippies. They're all the same—latter-day prophets. "Okeydoke! . . . Now, back to the Bible."

The Rev. Dymoke Gasson.



Rev. Gasson instructs: Gray Murray, Lewis Foster, Lee Garber, Chris McLendon, Eddie Barham, Steve Johnson, Charlie Merritt, Ben Mears.

SOPHOMORES

Officers: Dick Trotman, treasurer; Tony Norwood, vice-president, Steve Shelton, representative; Rhae Adams, secretary; Steve Johnson, representative; T. Barker Dameron, president.

I had a nightmare last night. I thought a freight train was coming straight at me. Then I woke up and found it was only the pipes clanking.

"WE DON'T HAVE any more privileges now than we did when we were only freshmen!" The voice of the sophomore. It seeks its own, falls back a pace, advances, most times louder than before. Cocky. "I didn't really start growing until I reached six feet."

Sophomore: wiser than most. Sometimes arrogant. Making new discoveries. "I got this thing figured out. You be nice to a teacher and he'll be nice to you." Subdueable.

Frolic on dorm. Hamburgers in the rec room at 9:45. Calling on a master in the evening, just to see how he's getting along, but if he asks if you'd like some pop corn, saying, "Oh, sure, sir," not wishing to seem impolite.

Potential leadership. "The loudest voice on the practice field was a new boy's—a sophomore's. It set the spirit. Right there."

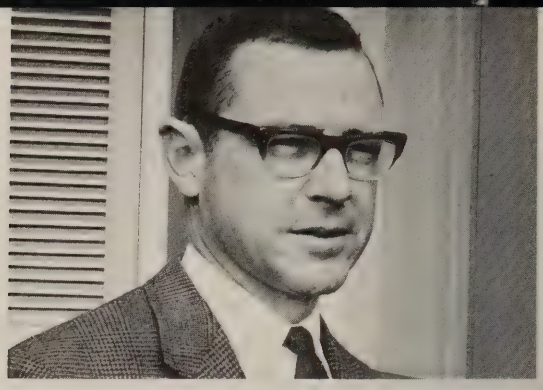
ACTIVITIES

MONOGRAM CLUB



Mr. Rock Lee, faculty advisor.

Officers: Al Williams, vice-president; David Shytle, sergeant-at-arms. Standing: Bill Mesick, secretary-treasurer; Geoffrey Norwood, president.

RENEWED HOPES MARK the year. The year in which a constitution is drawn up. The club becomes more firmly united. The value of good athletics is stressed. A player-of-the-week award is instituted, his contribution publicized. Committees to pick up some loose ends—a pool room committee, another for cheerleading. Decoration and display. A notable rise in student support. Loud and vociferous Saturday afternoons. Enthusiasm. Geoff Norwood, Gordon Whitehead, John Hetrick, Dan Johnson and Lynch Christian work.

V-jackets are worn with pride. Influence grows stronger. Intermural basketball tournaments. A steak dinner for the winners. "Longworth's team wins. Of course." A year in which the club proved itself.

Sitting: Clay Ferebee; Joe Vogler; Larry Hancock; Joel Pretlow; John Hetrick; David Shytle; Bill Mesick; Wooty Peebles; Ted Partrick; Jim Best; Al Williams; Landon Lane; Ken Sprunt; Tarlton Long; Lec Leckie; Holmes Morton; Royall Brown; Rhae Adams; Mosby Vogler; Randy Longworth; Lynch Christian; Willie Von Hacht; Dan Johnson; Allen Hamblen; Steve Shelton; Tony Norwood.

Standing: Dyke Messinger; Hays Van Noppen; Peter Grover; Harry Alverson; Walker Box; Dick Trotman; John Pope; Rip Wilson; Lap Hamblen; Robert Parsons; Chris McLendon; Bob Connelly; Peter Floyd; Eddie Barham; Leon Waldrop; Joe Liles; Dan Doughtie; Gordon Whitehead; Richard Frye; Geoffrey Norwood; Charlie Green.

HOP COMMITTEE

"I've had six blind dates, and I didn't like a single one of them. The laws of probability say I can't lose again.

MR. BERT HUDNALL chooses those who will serve. Dances to be planned. "Does anybody know a girl at Chatham Hall who'll date me?" . . . A leap year's dance, and some girl does. Decorations. St. Anne's . . . St. Catherine's . . . Stuart Hall.

Meetings after lunch in Room-103. An invitational Spring Dance. "Peterson, why don't you give us an idea we can use?" Crepe paper to be hung throughout the gym. It's taxing—thinking of new ways to drape it. Tuxedos ordered. "Mr. Hudnall has some new shoes, but he can't stand up on them." Meeting student demands is difficult. Last minute changes. Arrangements that fall through. Long distance calls. And then: Finals. "Why can't we have Wilson Pickett or James Brown?"

Leap-year's dance with Chatham Hall. Dan Johnson and Mac McCleary are separated by Miss Muffie Dent.

Henrietta Barksdale, Seven Hills School, as Columbine, and Mac McCleary as Pierrot.

"A macaroon . . . a macaroon . . . I cannot live without a macaroon."

DRAMA:

CASTING. COSTUMES. PROPS. Richard Ward and a problem with the lights, the set, and the way the last rehearsal went.

"Mr. DeHart, I'll never learn all this!" A motley crew in a 1920 farce. "You call that a shepherd's robe, Ferebee? I call it a mini-skirt!" Perry Erskine stays late to talk with Henrietta Barksdale: "Is it Tuesday, my love?"

The little gym is transformed into a parlor. A sophomore, a junior and two seniors playing cards like women. "Stop admiring yourself, Jones, and give Hancock his cue."

Successful. The audience laughs when it is supposed to. They're moved, too, by Aria Da Capo.

ABOUT THIRTY BOYS. The new director—Mr. Norman Blake. It looks promising. Concerts . . . Impromptu performances. In the dining room, Parker Lumpkin steps forward, "and this is Dolly," six feet-five, two hundred-sixty pounds, and sings the rhythmic words "Hello Dolly . . ." without batting an eye.

Much hard practice: fast songs; Negro spirituals; the choral background for John Brown's Body. New lines to learn. "All right, chaps. Who's singing tenor in the bass section?"

A weekend at Salem Academy. A show at LTHS, the Rotary Club, Seven Hills School, Chatham Hall. Father's Weekend. More harmony than any other group. Refreshing.

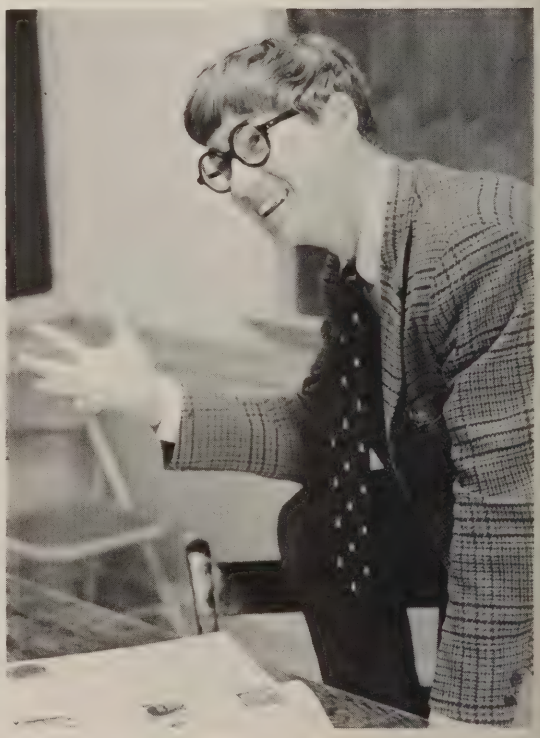
The Meteor and The Vestige



Editor-in-chief Gordon Whitehead explains how he did it.

Editorial Staff, The Meteor: Dyke Messinger, general editor; Tom Smyth, editor. Standing: Joe Liles, copy editor; Ken Sprunt, sports; Lanny Buchanan, book reviewer; Geoff Norwood, sports columnist.

r The Vestige is entertained by Thomasonian copy. Jeb Brown, associate; Charlie Green, photography.

A SCHOOL RECORD: The newspaper comes out three weeks after opening day. Understandable though. Gordon Whitehead is a human dynamo . . . There's a new darkroom, donated by The Acorn Society. Karl Wiese leaves it long enough to compose a poem about how good-looking he is. There's no room for the poem in the yearbook, but boy!, is Karl Wiese ever good-looking.

At Christmas Charlie Green gets a new Honeywell Pentax. "I didn't want to sleep this week anyway—" "Why pick on this week, Sutherland?" . . . "Silence, everyone. Godfrey Cheshire Will now deliver his critical evaluation.

Mr. James Hopkins, publications advisor, and Jim Sutherland, editor-in-chief of The Vestige.

I don't care what you say, Thomason—we cannot have a bathroom shot on the first page of the Freshman Section.

Alright, men, this is the fifth and final time we'll shoot this picture . . . If we don't get it this time, we'll try again.

NEW BOYS JOIN. Their voices merge with the old. A firmer voice. A level that begins to hold. Individualistic too. The artist. The lover, The mystic. The hippie. The hood. "I think William Buckley is the greatest." "The Four Seasons are better than the Beatles." The aristocrat and the clown. The counsellor. The letterman. The leader.

More freedom. Talent: balancing a salt shaker on a single gain of salt. And more work to fill-in the free time. Wordsworth at two o'clock in the morning. Inquisitive. High board scores. Wanting to learn. Making early application to college, and succeeding. Scholastically firm.

Genuine friendships. A playful wrestling match each evening. Sometimes two, with several on-lookers. Sometimes they all pile on. "I guess they have to let off steam somehow . . . They like each other."

Nothing tears you up like running the table and then scratching on the eight-ball.

I made a 41 first six-weeks and a 60 second six-weeks, so if I make 109 on my exam I'll pass for the semester.

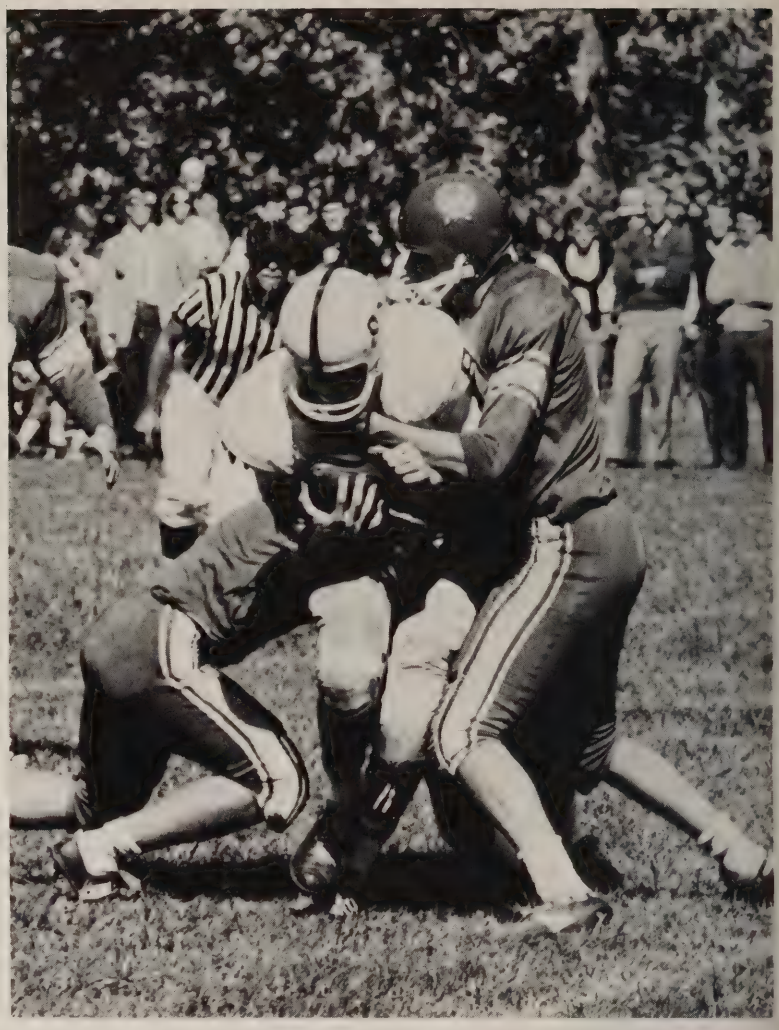
ATHLETICS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

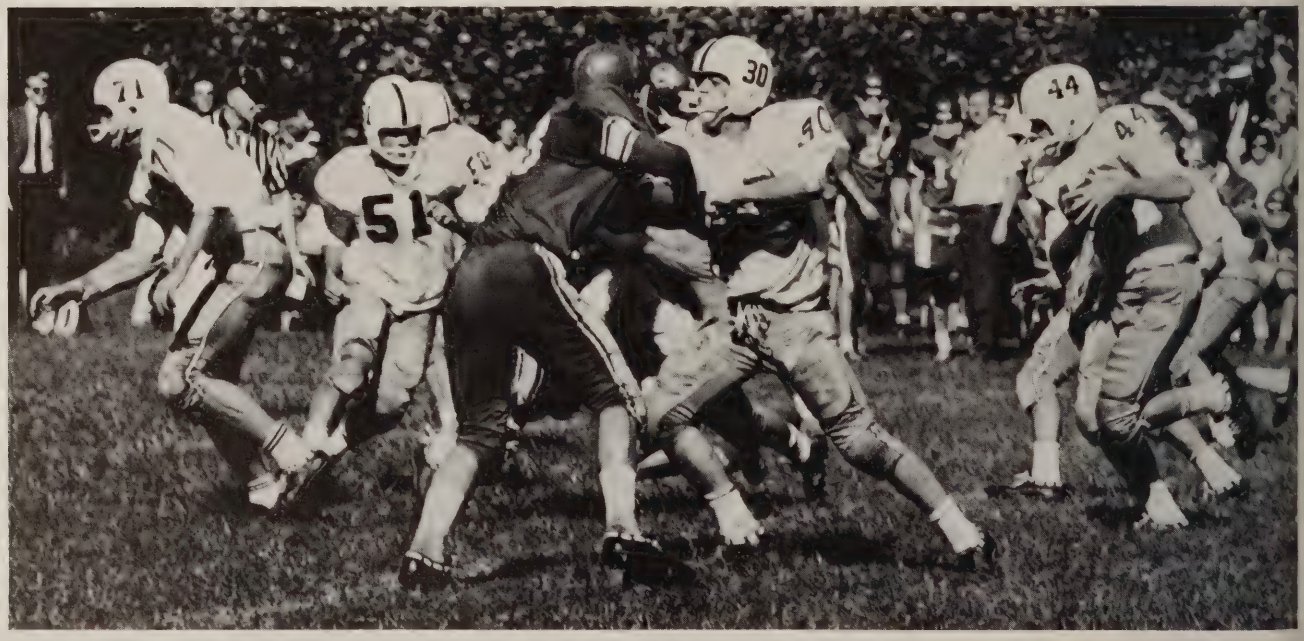
THEY COME BACK early —a week of summer willingly sacrificed. Drills . . . drills. More drills. Laps, one after the other, and then — to the pits. Hour after hour of preparation for the season to come . . .

A rough schedule. They're ready to face it. The kick-off and a sluggish Bishop team faces Fishburne Military. Score: 13 to 0.

Another week of practice: North Carolina State Drill; Georgia Tech Roll. Then, the St. Christopher's game: a good defense cannot be matched by the offense. Score: 6 to 0 . . . David Shytle scores on a 50-yard run against Episcopal, but the Bishops are powerless against their passing attack . . .



Willie Von Hacht gets tackled after catching a pass against St. Christopher's.



Lec Leckie leads blocking for Ted Haigler.

Second row: Randy Longworth; Bill Mesick; Peter Floyd; Ted Haigler; Steve Shelton; Larry Hancock; Dick Trotman; Joe Vogler; Clay Ferebee; Allen Hamblen; Lynch Christian.

Third row: Gene Bowers; Willie Von Hacht; Walker Box; Mosby Vogler; Rip Wilson; Cecil Taylor; Parker Lumpkin; Peter Grover; Hunter Beach; Bill Nexsen.

Top: Royall Brown, Joel Pretlow, Landon Lane, managers; Mr. Rodney Goggin, Mr. Archibald Soucek, coaches; Tony Norwood, Charles Merritt, trainers.

Head football coach, Mr. Archibald Soucek, and line coach, Mr. Rodney Goggin.

Whose turn is it to be dummy?

Well, boys, somebody suggested that we go to the pits . . .

He's six four, weighs 270 and runs the hundred in 9.2 . . . Now the other halfbacks . . .

Coach, I'm about ready for some juice . . .

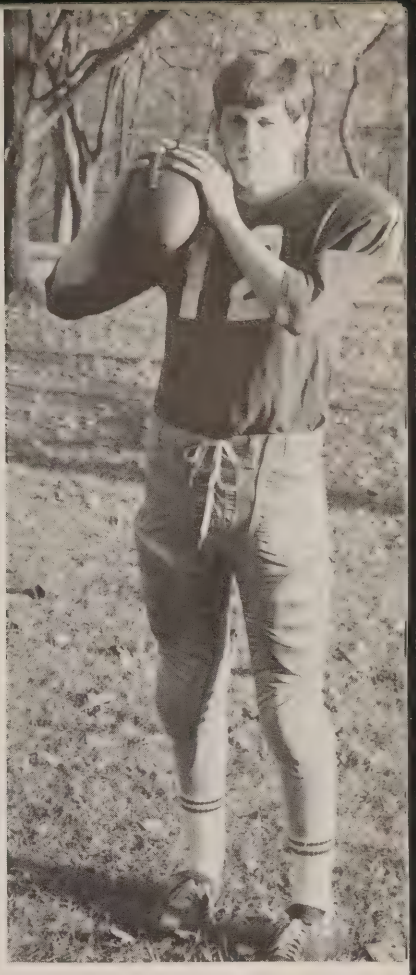
Only thirty-eight more days of practice!

How would you like to weigh 135 pounds and have to play tackle, Coach?

Miss Arthur! . . . What's Miss Arthur got to do with this football team?

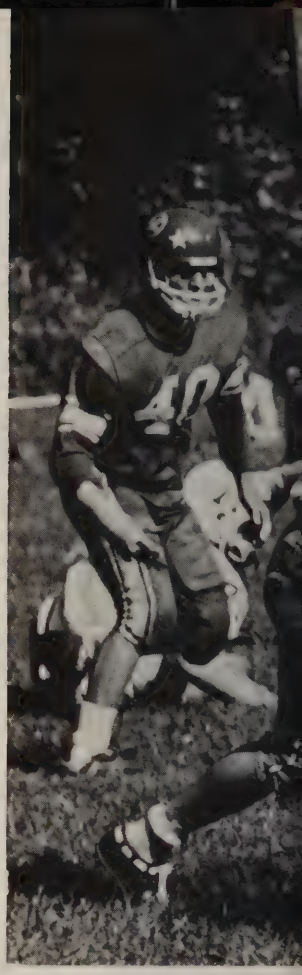
Taking a rest: Bill Mesick (83); Lap Hamblen (72); Lee Waldrop (42); Allan Hamblen (33); Joe Vogler (31); Rhae Adams (46) and Mac McCleary.

Offensive backs: Joe Vogler, David Shytle and Allen Hamblen.

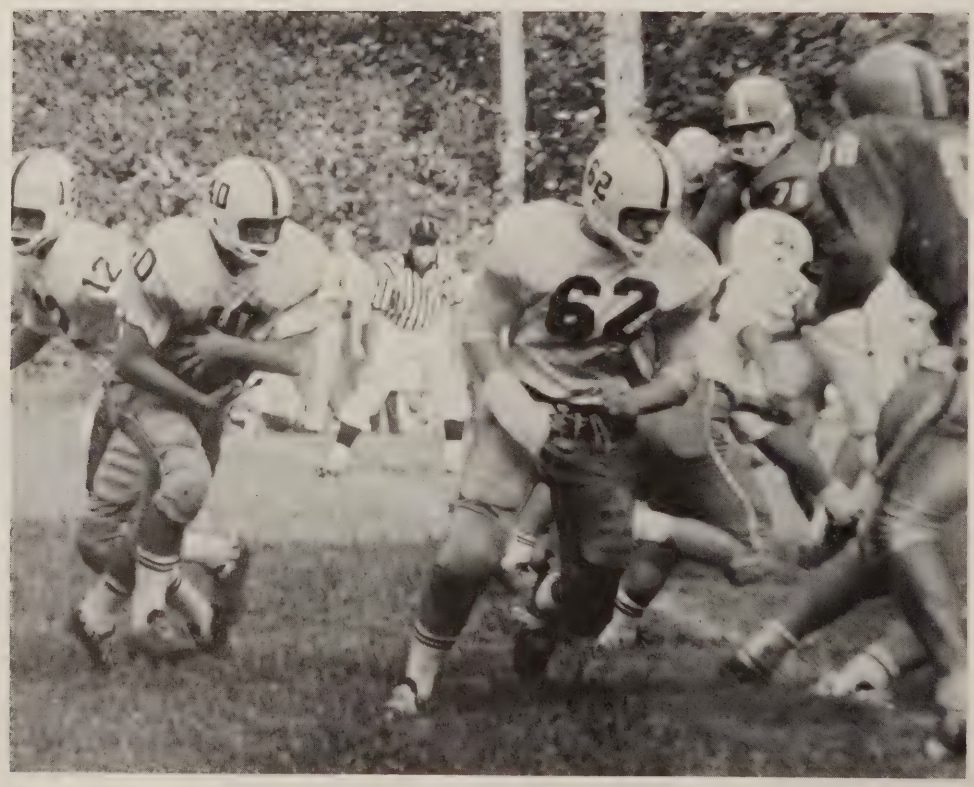


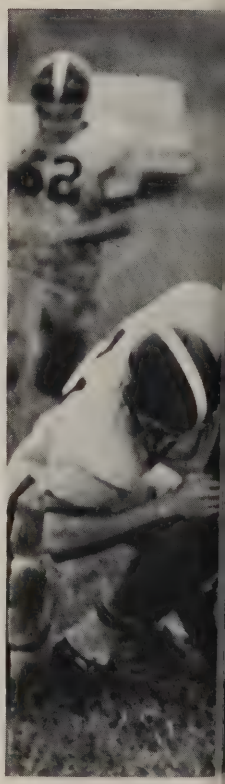
Quarterback Charles Green.

Ken Sprunt and Rip Wilson, linesmen-tackles; Larry Hancock and Clay Ferebee, guards; Richard Frye, center.



Willie Von Hacht waits in anticipation of pass.





David Shytle (40) penetrates line, following block made by Larry Hancock (62).

Bishop blockers, led by Joe Vogler (31), John Hetrick (62) and Richard Frye (70), make opening for fullback Ted Haigler (44).

Joe Vogler (30) gets stopped after substantial gain.

Dislocated shoulders, twisted ankles, then Collegiate: the Bishops are ruined by fumbles and intercepted passes. Randolph-Macon: with the enthusiasm of the student body to inspire them, the Bishops play their best game of the season.

The last opponent: Woodbury Forest: John Hetrick, Lee Waldrop and Clay Ferebee stand out . . .

Triumph and defeat. Hope and heartbreak. For some it's ended. Others look forward to another year with optimism. "One thing was never lacking," they all say — "effort."

J.V. FOOTBALL

TROUBLE FROM THE start, the first three games a loss — to Northcross, St. Christopher's and George Washington of Danville. They play the first home game and beat Fishburne 20 to 7. In their next encounter they are not able to contain the passing attack of Blue Ridge. The game ends 26 to 12.

The last two games — victories — against Fishburne and Woodberry Forest . . . Captains for the year: Earle Betts, Barker Dameron, Caull Exum and Gray Murray. High-scorers: Rice Matthews, eleven touchdowns, Holmes Morton with two, and Barker Dameron, Gray Murray and Jim Thomason with one each. Jim Laird adds three points and John Warden, one.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

"EVERYBODY GIVE ME two quick laps" . . . "That's great! Six guys oing out for quarterback, and nobody for uard." Practice after practice . . .

The Baby Bishops open their season gainst a strong Sandusky team and are de-eated . . . Back to the practice field. The ext game ends with Nelson County and a in for the Bishops. Then a chain of hard ick; the next four games are lost to Hargrave, . E. Lee, Appamotox and Linkhorne.

"Everybody eat plenty of meat and po-atoes!" "Hit Anderson!" The next two games gainst Blue Ridge and Miller School are won y the Bishops. Standouts for the year: Cac loyle, Ned Dillon, Dan Thomason, Sandy line and Jim Leath.

George Swift and Sandy Cline sweep around right end.

Line-up against Blue Ridge: Frank Millikan; Eddie Barham; Bob Parsons; (Blue Ridge); Tarlton Long; Chris McLendon; Joe Liles; Dan Doughtie; Harry Alverson; (two Blue Ridgers); Gordon Whitehead; and others.

Gordon Whitehead and Tarlton Long finish first lap.

Gordon Whitehead and Mr. Soucek.

CROSS COUNTRY

"O.K. . . . EVERYBODY RUN to Randolph-Macon and be back in 20 minutes . . ." The long workout: "I'll never get in shape." Meet after meet . . . They win against Christchurch and Randolph-Macon; they drop close meets to Collegiate, Norfolk and Blue Ridge.

"Who was first — Whitehead or Doughtie?" . . . "If I could have only made that last hill!" The Bishops end their season at the State Meet where several people have their best runs . . . "Next year I'm going out for football for sure."

Dan Doughtie out front, with Tarlton Long second for the Bishops.

First row: Chris McLendon; Dan Doughtie; Tarlton Long; Gordon Whitehead; Harry Alverson; Bob Connelly; Bob Parsons; Joe Liles.

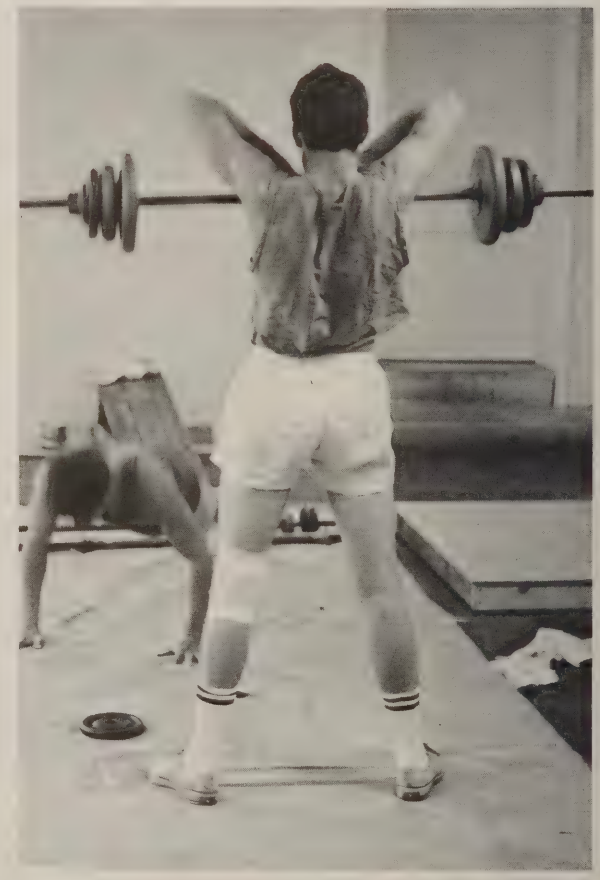
Jumping Jack Agricola (foreground) and his followers: Hal Worsley, Tom Smyth, Ross Stansfield, Barney Rhett, and David Jarema.

Tuckered out after being clobbered on the lacrosse field: Karl Wiese.



Mosby Vogler builds biceps.

EXERCISE GROUPS

US SMOKERS WOULD rather exercise than quit!" Led by Mr. Daugherty, the Exercise Group turns in a good year. Jumping Jacks . . . Push-ups. "Sir—Jack's hiding behind that car!" Volley ball. Softball. A lap around the field. "Give us a break!" Each season a new group of guys. A few perennials. "Anybody got a light?" The big decision: touch football or relay races?

and WEIGHT LIFTING

MILES TO RUN. Weights to lift. Mr. Goggin and Mr. Soucek do their best to keep boys in shape. Crabbing up snow-covered hills. Broken noses. Bench presses. "Come on, Simon." Rhae Adams and Rip Wilson have a friendly tussle. Max—the dog—tries on some athletic equipment. Rope climbs. "Run two more miles, and you can go in." Soccer. Lacrosse. Football. 'Wretch' comes up to bat. "Sure, Wiese." An unusual group . . .

Joe Vogler catches a long bomb.

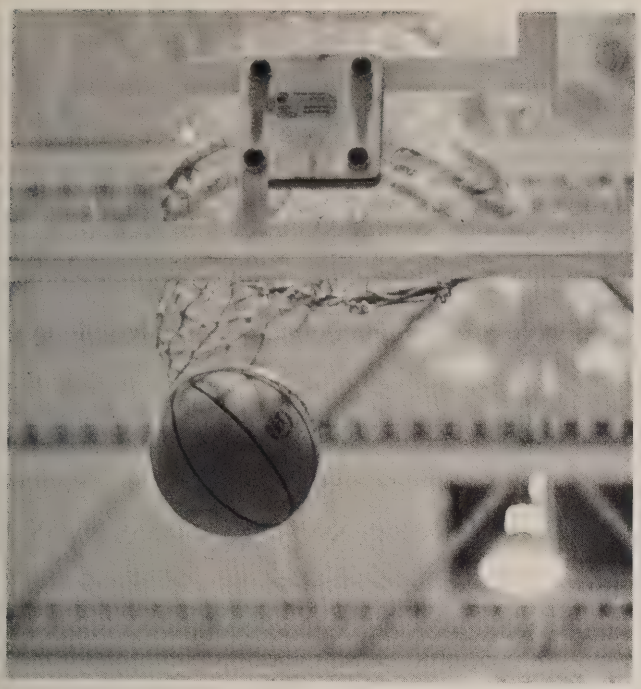
George Sharp faces onslaught: Lewis Foster, Bill Ruddock, Larry Hancock, and Karl Wiese.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Mr. Bobby Lynch, Varsity Basketball coach, shouts instructions to the team.

Fight for possession: Tom Smyth and Randy Longworth.

Hays Van Noppen lays up two against Blue Ridge.



Tally two.

Wooty Peebles demonstrates perfect form.

UNDER NEW COACH Bobby Lynch, the season opens. Weeks of practice. Lay-ups. Jump shots. Foul shots. Sprints. Day after day—the same, hard practice.

The opener against a strong Alumni team, and a victory for the Bishops: 74 to 60. Then they host Collegiate and are downed 68 to 54. Host to Woodberry Forest, and another victory, 55 to 52. Father Judge is trounced, 104 to 65.

Two encounters, and the Bishops are downed by Woodberry Forest, 72 to 57 and Holy Cross, 58 to 55 . . . More lay-ups and foul shots . . . A meet with EHS and down 55 to 38. A defeat by Albemarle, 72 to 55. New plays are learned. A loss to St. Christopher's, 75 to 68. Next: Randolph-Macon, where the Bishops gain a victory: 62 to 59.

In the game against Fishburne Military Academy, Randy Longworth sets a new school scoring record, 40 points, as the Bishops hand them a 94 to 72 defeat. Longworth does not slow down. In the next game against Northcross, he breaks his own record by scoring 51 points. The Bishops win 117 to 27.

Three more games, but the Bishops are not able to come out on top. Collegiate dropped 74 to 52; another to Holy Cross, 65 to 52, and one to St. Christopher's, 85 to 57. The last game of the regular season, and the Bishops defeat Blue Ridge, 93 to 49.

Outstanding players for the year: Randy Longworth and Dan Johnson; sophomore, Bob Peterson; Wooty Peebles, Hays Van Noppen, and Lynch Christian. Leading scorer: Randy Longworth, followed by Bob Peterson. Leading rebounders were Dan Johnson and Lynch Christian, who was named to the All-Tournament Team.

Bob Peterson lobs shot over Woodberry defender.

Charlie Green drives through for two against Blue Ridge.

JV BASKETBALL

BEST OF ALL, the basketball team with a 9-3 season. Some new talent, some back from '67. Charlie Green is captain. At critical moments, there's latent power.

"My little brother, Parker Lumpkin, is starting at center." Bill Duff jumps onto the big boy's back to make a lay-up. "Sandy Cline is an exhibitionist." . . . "Those Raleigh boys—quite a pair."

Rebounding practice. "Use both hands, Lumpkin." One game won in a double over-time. Frank Johnson, "Harry Highschool," puts in two points to win . . . Sherwood Hedgpeth comes in as substitute and is high scorer. For the rest of the season, he starts. Heated competition makes it a good year. Great varsity potential. A great team.

Kneeling: Tom Speight; Lee Lumpkin; Sherwood Hedgpeth; Charles Green, captain; Mike James; Steve Sessions; Bill Alexander.

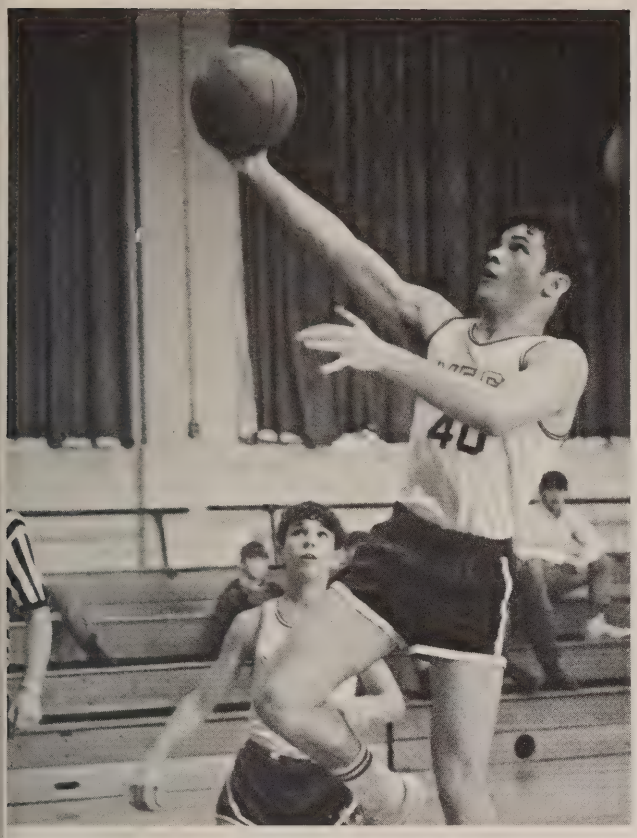
FRESHMAN BASKETBALL



T. Barker Dameron goes in for lay-up.

Look at his form—pathetic! They ought to give him points for hittin' the backboard. Such a hot-shot ball-handler! And he's starting in my position . . .

A HARD SEASON. Freshman teams often start that way. Everyone agrees, "A lot of good material." Dan Thomason pumps in one right after the other. "That was a real exciting game—the one we almost won."

Barker Dameron and Hill Cassell work under the basket. Dan Thomason leads the attack. 'Chocks' Merritt and Cac Hoyle—good strength.

Coach Nat Jobe regulates the team from the sidelines. Resolute. A rough schedule against local junior highs. Full of fight.

Standing: Mr. Nathaniel Jobe; Bill Pully, manager; Vaughn McAlister; T. Barker Dameron; Charles Merritt; Allen Chipley; Hill Cassell; Pat Causey; Lee Heath; John Lane; Marvin Barnard; Graydon Pleasants, manager.

Kneeling: Victor Wallace; Rennie Hill; Dubbie McMillan; Dan Thomason and Cac Hoyle, co-captains; Don Cawood; Tom Honaker; Frank Millikan.

VARSITY SOCCER

Mr. Archibald Soucek, coach, speaks, encouraging words to Holmes Morton

A W'RIGHT, LET'S START off with about fifteen laps—see what kind of shape you're in." Sprints, jogs, and after a while—walks. Passing. Shooting. Mistakes that seem to iron out. "And then we had a warm spell. For three straight days it was above 20°." Offense. Defense. Games against St. Christopher's, Woodberry, Collegiate. Muddy fields, frozen fields. "Then we played this team, and their coach had to give directions in Spanish, English and Chinese." A victory over Fishburne.

Broken ankles, dislocated shoulders, cold hands. Penalty kicks, corner kicks. Goals by Peter Grover, Mosby Vogler, Bill Bollin, Clay Ferebee and Caull Exum. "If I had only kicked it a little harder." A nice save by Lee Waldrop. Scrimmage after scrimmage. Some have learned new things. All have improved. "Next year I think we oughta have indoor soccer fields."

Kneeling: Joe Vogler; Lee Waldrop; Lec Leckie; Mac McCleary; Ted Partrick; Gordon Whitehead; Bill Mesick and Mosb Vogler, co-captains; Peter Grover; Holmes Morton; Dan Doughtie; John Warden; Mike Shannor

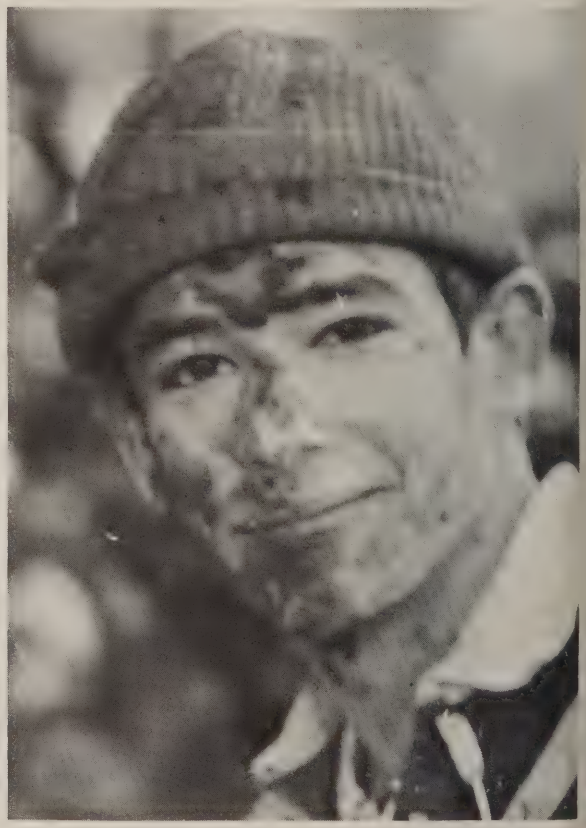
John Warden keeps ball from Woodberry defender.



Aftermath: a mud-spattered Louie Foster.

Gunner Murphy and Bob Connelly drive against Blue Ridge.

JV SOCCER

COACH TOM MOORE drove the team to a 3-2-1 record. Hard practice and good material resulted in two victories over Fork Union. They beat Sandusky. One loss to Blue Ridge and another to St. Christopher's. In the second game against Blue Ridge—a tie.

Outstanding players: Ned Dillon, Gunner Murphy, Robert Parsons, Barney Rhett, Fielding Jones and Bruce Guignard. Leading scorers: Ned Dillon, ten goals, and Gunner Murphy, two, and Robert Parsons, one.

VARSITY TENNIS

DAVID "UNCLE DUDLEY" AUSTEN takes over Varsity and JV tennis teams . . . A completely new varsity team with no returning lettermen still looks good . . .

Blisters at first. Rallys. Challenge matches. Changing standings. Competition for 'number one' spot. Lee Heath is the winner. Several fight for second.

Instruction: "You got to have a lot of josh, brothers, a lot of josh." Sportsmanship: "I don't want any of you boys throwing rackets." Strategy: "If the ball's out of reach, don't go after it. Don't waste your effort." Philosophy: "We're out to have fun."

Playing every day. "Too bad we can't play mixed doubles." Finally, matches. Hard played. Individual members give team effort.

School spirit: front row: Tarlton Long; Royall Whitehead; John Robinson; Lee Waldrop. Secon

AN ALL-IMPORTANT YEAR. The last and best. "Without us the school would fold-up." Duties. Responsibilities. A color TV and the loudest record player you ever heard. Achievement Tests. College Boards. Applications to four different colleges. Beginning the long wait. Homework: "What did we have in history?" Last-minute loose-ends in the advisor-advisee period.

Chicken and Lugar have an argument: Who is prettier — Pretlow or Birdman? Counsellors . . . Leaders. "The Wild Wild West" on Friday nights. The long wait.

Government papers. A few replies from colleges. War and Peace at 6:30 . . . (only four hundred pages to go). "Who broke the record player again?" . . . "We should like to include your name on our waiting list . . ." "I didn't really want to go there anyway." "You can always get into Carolina, you know." The long wait . . .

Graduation closes in. Friendships taken for granted: "I'm really going to miss some of these guys." Fun-times. Friendships that will never end. The finals dance. "I just hope I'm looking my coolest when he hands me that diploma." The voices of the Class of 1968 . . .

I'm convinced that College Board Scores are just pure luck.

Have you ever noticed how no one gets nervous anymore when the first snow starts to fall?

Just try reading Crime and Punishment in one study hall sometime!

I think they ought to base counsellorship on seniority . . . I've been here six years.

Sometimes I think this school is caught in a time warp and I'll never graduate.

VESTRY

THE CHAPEL DOORS open. Manned by members of the Vestry. In crisp suits or plaid jackets, they look dignified . . . wholesome. "Makes you feel secure."

On occasion they read: "The Scripture according to St. John," with slightly-Southern overtones. They stand tall.

Bookkeeping. They collect student pledges. Appropriate funds: projects in the city, the state, the country . . . They stop at the entrance to the pews . . . Solemnly. For Holy Communion.

Foreground: Peter Floyd; Jack Agricola; Dyke Messinger; Tom Smyth.
Middle: Lewis Foster; Peter Grover; Steve Shelton; Geoff Norwood; Bill Mesick.
Background: Randy Longworth; Gene Bowers; Frank Johnson; Joe Liles.

In conference: Dyke Messinger, chairman; Bill Mesick; Jack Agricola; Geoff Norwood.

HONOR COMMITTEE

AN INNOVATION—MORE students this year are selected from the Counsellor Body to serve in revered capacity . . . as a mediation group . . . as a liaison between the students and the Headmaster. They do a good job.

Dyke Messinger heads the Committee. They are there and they are ready. But there are a few disciplinary problems . . . They do not meet often. They pass each other in the halls; they smile.

"It's been a good year."

A sunny day and a ple and informal five-minutes before lunch . . . the voices . . .

THE VOICES SUBSIDE. The voices still . . . . Still the voices, not plaintive. Somewhat weighted. Nostalgia? Remembering something. It is not unlike spring . . .

"That time in January? How bleak it was . . . and then, the Holiday—that great day—skiing and skating and all . . ." The lights burn. Sprawl-around bull-sessions: "Then when we got there—I don't know . . . Nervous I guess . . . I mean, I'd never been invited to a girls' school before . . . But she was beautiful. Really, I mean it!"

Election of next year's officers. Next year . . . "What will it be like?" The storage rooms. Unlocked. Trunks come out. Scarred suitcases . . . "What was it like?—this year. "You know, there're some nice guys around here . . . and some of the masters . . . the ladies in the offices too."

The lights burn. Larger-than-life-size posters . . . People you wish you knew . . . People you do know. Larger-than-life . . .

Miss Evelyn Arthur, school nurse: an ever-present help.

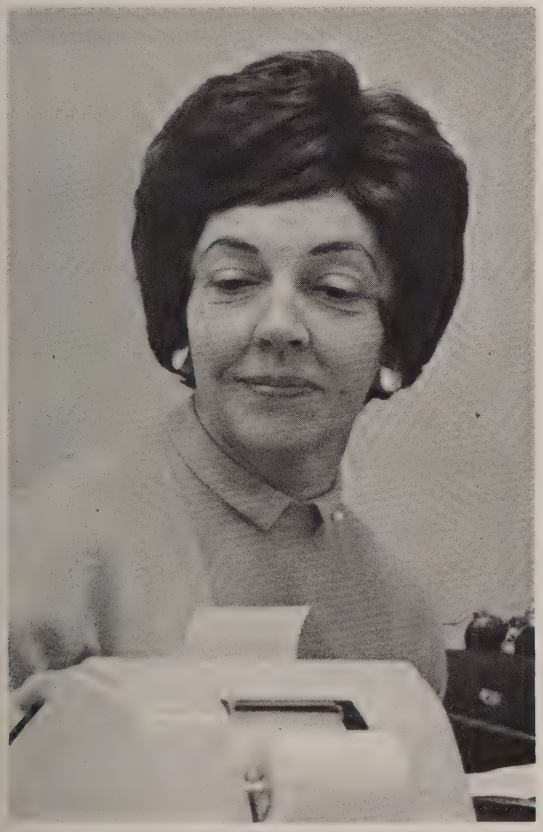
llen Hamblen, the bookish type; where a book should be.

Miss Faith K. Harper, administrative secretary: dictaphone, telephone, xerox, and paper clips



Miss Virginia P. Henderson, business office: accounts, allowances, a cheerful word.

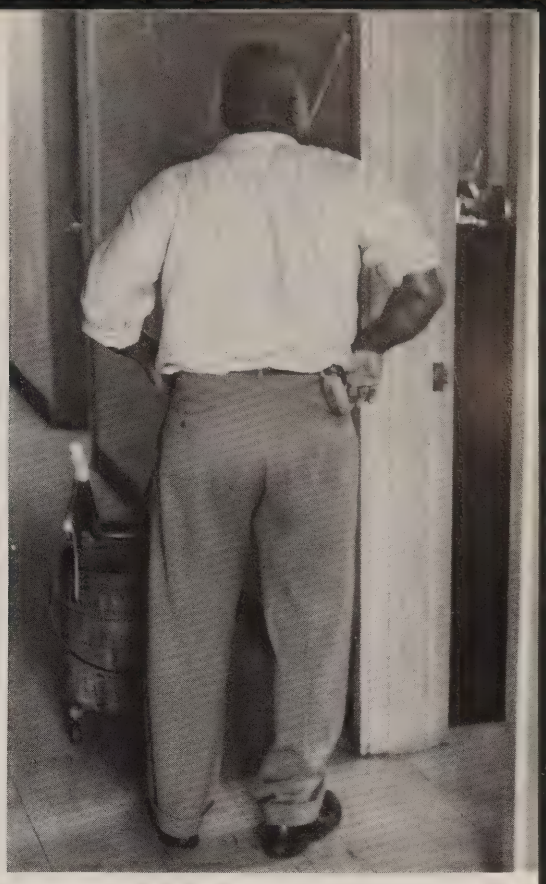
Mr. Herbert M. Harper, business manager: repairs, replacements — a snappy punch-line.

Looking where the hot water went: Clarke Suttle; Mr. Gus Farrar, foreman; Moses Brew; Mr. Norman Owen.

Stopping a while between jobs: Moses Brew; William Tucker; Lawrence Turner; Robert Thomas.

Once

Mr. Joseph Cappadona, dining room manager; pizza, soup, and salad.



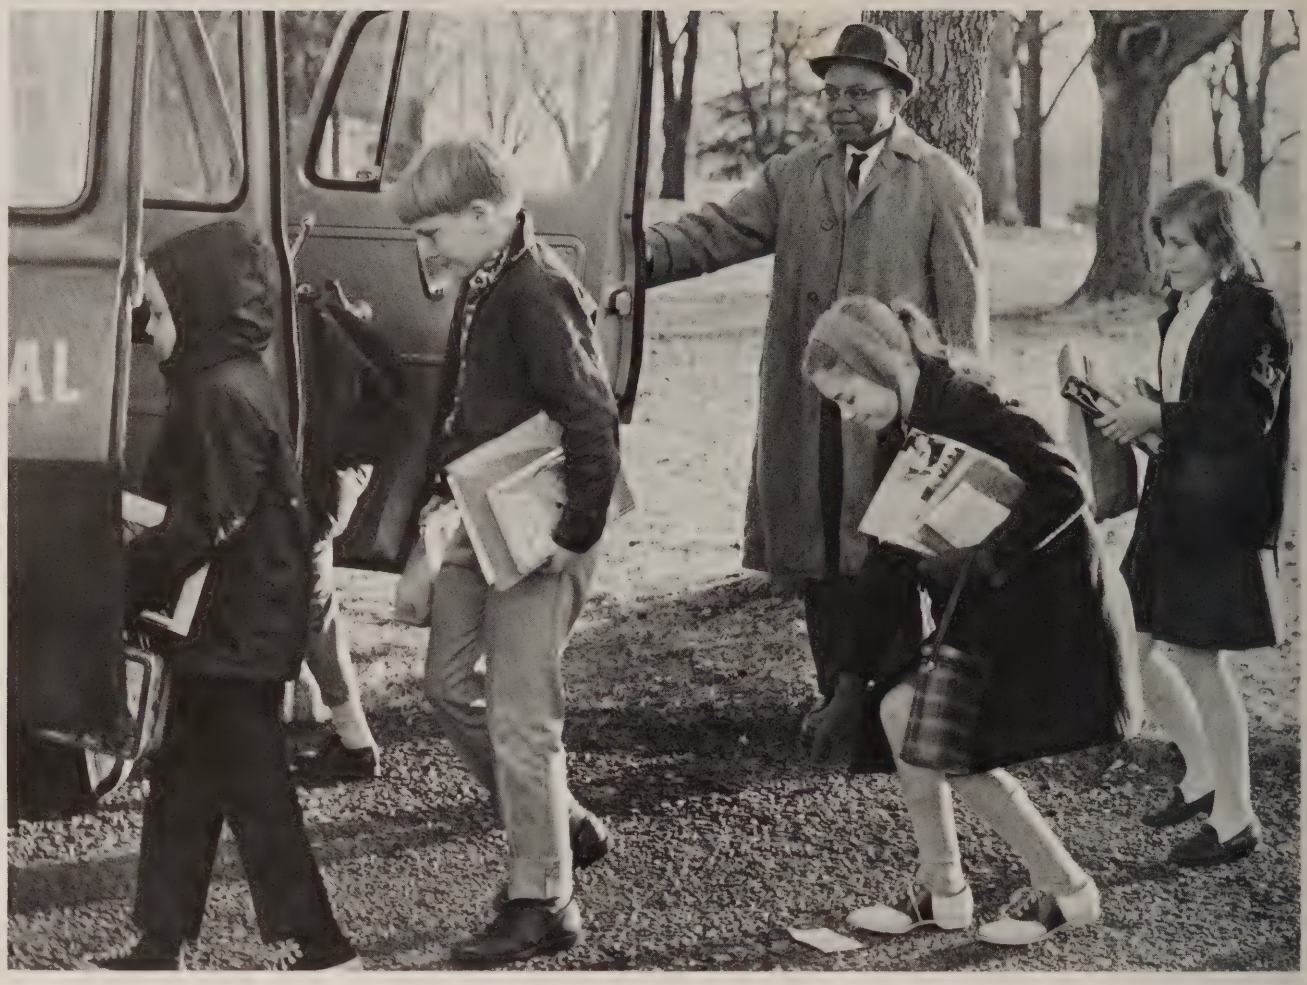
Wondering how it got that way: Lawrence Turner.

I took a pancake up to my room from breakfast, addressed it, stamped it, and mailed it to my girl . . . She got it.

Please close those windows! . . . The draft you save may save you to be drafted . . .

-eek toast: Allan Williams and table mates.

Campus clean-up? . . . it's easy: Just be where you aren't supposed to be when you aren't supposed to be there. Andy Riley; Bill Young; Hal Worsley; Wooty Peebles; Mr. Montgomery.



Mr. George Hill, Custodian, takes charge of the grammar school set: Clark Daugherty, Phil Montgomery, Elizabeth Hopkins and Alice Montgomery.

Mrs. Romney Watkins, library assistant, with Taylor Putney.

Bill Ruddock, Hal Worsley, Wooty Peeb

Awaiting the bell for chapel: Lap Hamblen, Pat Causey and Lynch Christian.

Charles Green and Gray Murray.

One more time, a quiet conference: Mr. William Wyatt and Mr. Austin Montgomery.

Jett-Pendleton, at dusk: another day . . . another season . . . another year.

A GOOD YEAR. For the Headmaster, the culmination of seven active years—the best. Sun on fresh brick. Green lawns. Sprinklers heralding and wheelbarrow tipped on end. Recalling . . . Fullness in the throat. Voices at Commencement. "It's been good . . ." The quick gesture. "See you again." Things to be forwarded . . . Buildings. Without boys. Waiting . . .
